High-performance LEDs create a powerful, focused beam with plenty of reach that's fully adjustable from low to high and all points in between. And Irix's contemporary, ergonomic polymer body is lightweight, durable, and easy to operate with just one hand. Hands-free illumination never looked so good.

- High-strength polymer body is durable and lightweight
- Power-regulated LEDs maximize output and runtime; never need replacing
- Reflectors create a focused beam pattern
- Ergonomic dial allows for easy control of output levels
- Comfortable, adjustable headband provides secure fit
- Sealed with O-rings; weatherproof
- Powered by one AA alkaline battery; included
